Over two-thirds of the 1906 crop, comprising the whole output of the Burley District, has been sold and the money is gradually being distributed. Mason county will come in for her pro-rata, and after a while money is going to be plentiful 'round these parts. We have suffered with the Equity, and now it is only natural to suppose that we are going to be able to rejoice with them, for when trade opens up and all our Equity friends stick to us as we have stuck to them, we are anticipating a rush of business. For this reason we are advertising and his departure from our midst is very much regretted by a large circle of warm friends.

Blatterman Did the Work—Eagles Not In It—A One-Sided Game

The game of ball yesterday afternoon between the Eagles and Elks attracted a big crowd to witness the one-sided swatfest.

The man behind the gun, who furnished the baseball pyrotechnical display, was S. M. Blat-terman, who did professional pitching for the Elks, and to his masterly efforts is largely due the magnificent showing of the untolerated aggregation.

Just why the Eagles failed to soar away from the Elks, as Captain Miller forecasted they would, is somewhat disappointing to the friends of the former—it is certainly a fact their wings were clipped and tail feathers pulled in the fray of the afternoon.

Now that he has regained lost honors, the German Prince is once again himself. Of course he will try to make you believe he was the whole show, and to him alone belongs the laurel wreath of victory, but there were others in the game as well as himself.

The Elks made nine runs in the first inning and continued to pile up runs all through the game, while the Eagles drew goose eggs.

"PENALTY" ENVELOPES

Government Will Aid Its Pension- ers to Get Their Money

Drawing pensions will henceforth be made somewhat easier for the beneficiary, in accordance with instructions received by Major A.
T. Wood, Pension Agent of Kentucky.

He was apprised that, in accordance with the Pension Appropriation Bill passed by the last Congress, the Pension Office would hereafter issue to every pensioner so-called "penalty envelopes" in which to return his voucher free of postage for the regular check.

The term "penalty envelope" is applied because of the substantial penalty of $300 imposed in case the envelope is used for other business than that immediately prescribed.

Senator-elect W. O. Bradley of Kentucky says his experience before the National Committee in presenting the Kentucky contests before that body, which he lost by a wide margin, reminds him of the scrap between the woodpecker and the hawk. "You know the hawk got after the woodpecker one day and gave him the time of his life. The poor old woodpecker was being pressed when he espied a hole in an old tree to crawl into and he made a bee line for it. Just as he got his head and wings into the hole the hawk amputated the rest of him. As the woodpecker fell down inside the tree he shouted back at the hawk: 'Thank God, Mr. Hawk, for saving this much of me.'"

They have been hanging around on the cide have developed unmistakable fondness for

HON. HENRY WATTESSON, the distinguished Editor of The Courier-Journal, is now safely seated in the Bryan band-wagon: or, to speak a little more figuratively, he is marching in the Bryan entourage with his off hind leg chained to the free-silver-sixteen-to-one-Government-ownership-chariot of the "Peerless One."

Marse Henry
a Prisoner Behind
Bryan's Chariot.

Now, wha' do yer think of that?

Does Marse HENRY consider himself unanswerable to any party fealty or political law? Can he "mutiny" whenever he sees fit and play the freebooter whenever the whim strikes him? Can he raise a rough house in every campaign and then turn a political handspring and land again in the procession and root for the nominee?

"To your tents, oh, Israel!"

"Up, boys, and at 'em!"

What tents? what Israel? and what boys?

Does Marse HENRY this year of our Lord invest in a Pari Mutuel longshot with the expectation that BRYAN is going to land the Presidential stakes?

Or probably the great Editor had no standing with any other party, and, perforce, took a quiet sneak back into the Democratic barnyard with the homing instinct cry of "Mama, I want you! Please take me back at any old price!"

The fatted calf has again been slaughtered, but maybe it will turn out the Democratic donkey or a large mess of crow, as it ever has resulted whenever Marse HENRY favored his party emblem.

Writing of BRYAN's second race for the Presidency, The Courier-Journal said:

"If we are to lose another Presidential election through the agency of Mr. BRYAN, let Mr. BRYAN and his friends carry the whole responsibility. In a word, if the Democratic party has not within itself saving grace to save itself, no individual or newspaper effort will suffice to save it."

And again, when the "Peerless Statesman" visited the Bluegrass State:

"Mr. WILLIAM J. BRYAN has come to Kentucky, and Kentuckians have taken his measure. He is a boy orator. He is a dishonest dodger. He is a daring adventurer. He is a political fakir. He is not of the material of which the people of the United States ever made a President, nor is he even of the material of which any party has ever before made a candidate."

Knocking WILLIAM RANDOLPH HEARST, Marse HENRY was no less caustic, and in a double-barreled article he fired two shots into the political carcasses of the two little WILLIES as below:

"The Hearst propaganda is not more objectionable than the Bryan propaganda. Neither is Democracy. Both look to the ultimate substitution of the paternal theory of Government, variously construed and applied, for the Government of the Constitution as it is. Beneath a haze of resounding platitudes, the Radicals who call themselves Democrats and the Radicals of the Independence League propose the remedy of disorders, much magnified in their inflamed fancy, by specifics infinitely worse than the diseases sought to be cured. They drop the substance of reform to grasp at the shadow. The reduction of the Tariff to a revenue basis would, for example, strike a root blow at Trustism of the restrictive kind. A just system of publicity would take the sting out of High Finance. The country needs no new doctrines for its regeneration. Only political adventurers think so. Reduce our politics to a race between ROOSEVELT and BRYAN, which can promise the more and throw most dust in the eyes of the people, and, in a little while, no man's property will be safe."

HAS THE LADIES GUESSING.

"Do you know a good conundrum?"

"Yes."

"What is it?"

"Why is a bachelor?"

National Convention

Of Republican Party Opened at Chicago Yesterday—Chairman Burrows' Speech

It was a little past noon yesterday when Committee Chairman New called the Republican National Convention to order in the Coliseum at Chicago.

After the Convention had been organized, Temporary Chairman, Senator J. C. Burrows of Michigan, made his speech and at length outlined the policies and the success of the Republican party.

In closing, he declared that with the appointment of a Monetary Commission, Congress had taken a forward step toward more effective currency laws. He deplored the fact that no action had been taken on the measure for the enlargement of the American merchant marine, but said that its passage in the very near future is confidently expected.

On the question of tariff revision, he said: "The Republican party stands for a revision and readjustment of our customs laws as changed industrial conditions at home and abroad may have made necessary keeping steadily in view the cardinal principles of protection to American industries and American labor."

"In this connection it can be safely promised that whatever revision or readjustment takes place under the control of the Republican party, it will give just and adequate protection to American industries and American market against the unjust and unequal aggression from whatever quarter they may come."

TODAY'S PROGRAM.

Convention called to order by Temporary Chairman.

Prayer by the Rev. William O. Waters of Chicago.

Report of the Committee on Credentials.

(If the Committee on Credentials is not ready to report the other business of the Convention will be suspended and the visiting marching clubs will be received by the Convention.)

After the Convention has acted on the report of the Committee on Credentials the reports of the following Committees will be called for:

Permanent Organization.

Rules and Order of Business.

Resolutions.

Selection of Members of the Republican Committee.

Selection of Honorary Vice-Presidents.

Notwithstanding a clean show of majority among the Kentucky delegates, R. P. Ernst has not yet won his fight to be re-elected National Committeeman. The opposition of Ernst has determined not to relinquish effort until after the Committee on Credentials has passed on the Kentucky contests.

WASHINGTON, June 16th.—

This statement was issued from an authoritative source this morning:

"An exchange of telegrams over night between Washington and Chicago indicates that there will be no developments, so far as the administration is concerned, in the matter of the selection of a candidate for Vice-President until after the platform shall have been disposed of and a nominee for the Presidency shall have been named."

It is understood that the above statement was issued with the distinct purpose of avoiding a complication of the Vice-Presidency with that of the Presidential nomination.

The result was a victory for the Taft men all along the line.

Stomach Muscles In Old Age

How Old People May Retain or Restore Good Health

Usually the bowels are not so active in middle or advanced years as in youth. Just as the eyes grow dim, the skin wrinkles, the hair gray, the muscles flabby, so do the internal organs show their age if we could but see them.

However we sometimes find a person whose age is near the meted three-score and ten and yet his step is sprightly, his eye keen, his flesh firm, his appetite good and his bowels regular, and upon close questioning you will find a life's history of right-living, good food, keen appetite, perfect digestion and regular bowel action.

Regular bowels and proper digestion of the food we eat is absolutely necessary to the enjoyment of good health by old or young. If the readers of this article are interested, we are glad to tell them how they can restore good health and prolong their lives.

Step into a drug store and purchase a bottle of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. It will cleanse the bowels of any waste matter that has clogged them up and restore to them strength and nerve force for regular natural daily action. It aids digestion by stimulating the stomach and digestive glands to a proper and sufficient secretion of the fluids necessary to perfect digestion. It acts on the liver and kidneys in a mild, quiet yet effective manner. Rev. A. J. Fletcher, of Rutherford, Tenn., is 80 years old, and it cured him of 60 years of dyspepsia. W. W. Sterling, Sioux City, Ia., says: "Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is the best medicine I ever used and I am 80 years old."

B. F. Thompson, Shenandoah, Ia., says: "I suffered 15 years with dyspepsia and it cured me." It is certain and effective in the most obstinate old cases, and yet mild and safe for the most delicate woman or child. All druggists sell it at 50c and $1.00 per bottle. Pepsin Syrup Co., 204 Caldwell Bldg., Monticello, Ill., is glad to send a free sample to any one who has never used it and will give it a fair trial.

HEAD DOWNWARD

James Pugh, an Aged Fleming County Man, Was Found—Death Resulted

James Pugh, an aged farmer and one of the pioneers of Fleming county, was found hanging head downward from a wire fence in which his foot had become enmeshed when he had attempted to climb it.

His body was discovered by two men of Flemingburg who had gone to spend the day at Park Lake, a fishing resort, twelve miles from Flemingburg.

Although Pugh was a wealthy and influential farmer in former days, poverty had overtaken him in his old age, and he, with his family, lived in straitened circumstances in the mountains.

The old men had left his humble mountain home to spend the day and night with his daughter. Failing to arrive, an investigation was made and parties dispatched to scour the mountains for him.

Pugh was found hanging head downward, his foot caught in the topmost strand of wire. Although he had hung in this position throughout the night he was semi-conscious when found, but died half an hour later.

Thomas Boone, a Sixth Ward resident and a C. and O. section hand, was precipitated from a moving handcar yesterday morning near the tool house East of Limestone creek, and in the fall received a deep cut over the eye, a bad scalp wound, his shoulder hurt and body bruised generally. He was taken to the office of Dr. A. O. Taylor, the Company Surgeon, where his wounds were dressed. It will be several days before he will be able to resume work.

Yesterday Chief of Police H. A. Ort received a telegram from Police Headquarters in Cincinnati requesting that he arrest one Joseph Dudley, colored, a fugitive from justice hiding in Maysville. Chief Ort gave orders to his men to drag the city in search of the much wanted man. He is wanted for the killing of Louis Smith, which occurred May 10th in Cincinnati. Dudley protests his innocence.

A State Bazaar will be held in Louisville either in November or December under the auspices of the Daughters of the Confederacy to help raise the money for the monument to be erected to General John H. Morgan in Lexington.

"Blind Tom," the world-famous musician, mention of whose death in Hoboken was announced in Monday's LEDGER, was a marvel of three generations. He died in retirement in New Jersey, where he had resided for years subsisting on charity. Thomas Wiggins is the name given in his burial certificate, but the surname was one which the famous pianist adopted. He was born a slave near Columbus, Ga., about 1850. In early childhood, Tom, who was born entirely blind and more than half idiotic, showed himself remarkably imitative, frequently stealing into the house of his master to reproduce on the piano pieces he had heard played by others. In 1861, he became so proficient on the instrument that he was taken to New York and exhibited as a phenomenon, and later was widely heard in the United States and Europe.

Deafness Cannot be Cured by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are cured by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces. We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circular free. F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O. Sold by Druggists. PUBLIC LEADER
MAYSVILLE, KY.

There will be a meeting of the A. O. U. W. tonight at their Hall. Business of importance.

Mr. E. Myall received a letter yesterday from Mr. W. P. Dickson in which he states that he is not seriously injured, though suffering with broken ribs and will be detained nine days at Clinton, Mo., before he will be able to continue his homeward journey.

Dr. E. L. Powell and Mr. A. B. Minery of Louisville will sail from New York on June 27th on the big twin screw ocean-going steamship Caledonia of the anchor line, bound for Glasgow, Scotland. While abroad Dr. Powell and Mr. Minery will visit all the principal points in England, France and Scotland, returning home by way of Antwerp after an extended trip of two months.

RIDER WAR IS OVER.

FRANKFORT, Ky., June 16th.—The "night-rider" war has, according to Adjutant General Johnston, reached the chicken-stealing stage. In all of the tobacco districts where trouble has been reported the tobacco crops which will be hoped for have already been set out, and the scraping of plant beds is over.

The regular State encampment of the militia will take a new form this year, for, instead of a brigade encampment being held at one place, regimental encampments will be held at each of the rifle-range sites.

SITUATION BAD

In Bracken County, Says Soldiers Returning to Lexington

LEXINGTON, Ky., June 16th.—Captain Jones, with 26 men of Company C, State Guards, who have been on duty at Brooksville, returned to Lexington last night, having been relieved by Company K of Covington. The men say the situation in Bracken county is bad. They say that there is no truth in the report that Louis Kinney attempted suicide, adding: "Kinney is so cordially disliked by his neighbors of the Equity that it the guard is removed from his premises he had better move out of the State or they will do more than whip him, as they did on the night of May 8th."

C. H. Newman shipped a car of hogs over the L. and N. this morning to Cincinnati.

Mrs. J. D. Moss and daughter, Miss Jolla, leave today on a visit to relatives in Fleming county.

The Aberdeen Bank has not been open since Saturday and Cashier Mitchell Knapp is reported confined to his home by illness.

R. T. Thompson, the man arrested here by Chief Ort and Policeman Ryan off the Queen City yesterday morning, charged with robbery, was turned over to the Chief of Police of Portsmouth, who arrived here yesterday. The officer and prisoner returned to the Ohio city last evening.

Our Colored Citizens.

Mr. Herman Hawkins died at his home in Covington after a short illness, aged 31 years. He leaves a wife, mother and one brother. His remains will arrive here on the 1:36 train this afternoon and the funeral will be conducted at Scott M. E. Church Wednesday at 2 o'clock. Interment in Maysville Cemetery.

NO INDICTMENTS

In Bracken County Night Rider Cases—No Evidence

AUGUSTA, Ky., June 16th.—The Grand Jury adjourned today, having found only three indictments. About sixty witnesses were examined in the night riders' cases but no evidence was found on which to base an indictment, except in the case of Lewis Kinney.

None of those who had been whipped claimed to have recognized any one in the party doing the work. The indictments found were for larceny and malicious cutting and against a Conductor for not putting a colored person in the right car.

PROBABLE SUIT

Mason Farmer Will Likely Sue Newspaper For Libel

The Fleming Gazette says Oscar Morgan, a resident of Mason county, near Mayslick, is said to be preparing to file suit in the Circuit Court at Flemingsburg against The Lexington Herald, alleging libel, and asking damages in the sum of $5,000.

C. B. Morford and R. J. Babbitt are representing the plaintiff, who alleges that he was damaged to the extent named by the publication of a news item sent out from Ewing some weeks ago in connection with the Matthews barn burning.

The gage marks 7.6 and falling.

The river, at several points, is the lowest that it has been in years.

The Cincinnati-Pittsburgh packets are now turning back at Wheeling.

The Charlie Brown is tied up at Middleport, Ohio, with a big tow of coal.

The Sprague and Pittsburgh have gotten back to Louisville, after a trip to New Orleans.

While absent from Kentucky, Governor Wilson will go to Boston to attend the Commencement of Harvard College, which will confer on him the Degree of L. L. D.

A boy in Covington in jumping on a train fell under it and had both feet cut off. He sued the railroad for damage and the Court of Appeals, in deciding the case, said the road is not bound to look out for children who are in the habit of jumping on and off the cars and is not responsible if they get hurt.

The Bockeye of Troy, Ohio, in its June 11th issue, contained the following complimentary notice of the Maysville lady: "The little play of Cinderella given last Friday at the Auditorium by the little tots who attend Miss Emma Campbell's kindergarten, was one of the most unique entertainments ever given in Troy. The Auditorium was filled by the parents and friends of the little tots, and all were proud of the manner in which they acquitted themselves. The entertainment was charming and Miss Campbell has won her way into the hearts of the people of Troy by her excellent method of kindergarten teaching. It is truly wonderful how she has trained these little ones from 3 to 5 to be so self-possessed on the stage."

NATURE TELLS YOU.

As Many a Maysville Reader Knows Too Well.

When the kidneys are sick, Nature tells you all about it. The urine is nature's calendar. Infrequent or too frequent action; Any urinary trouble tells of kidney ills. Doan's Kidney Pills cure all kidney ills. John G. Morris, Jail Keeper, living on Main street, Flemingsburg, Ky., says: "I can recommend Doan's Kidney Pills as being all that is claimed for them. Several months ago I was suffering severely from kidney disorders, and although I tried many remedies, I was unable to obtain relief. My kidneys were very weak and irregular in action, causing me much inconvenience and annoyance. I lost a great deal of sleep on this account. Finally Doan's Kidney Pills were recommended to me. I procured a box at J. Jas. Wood & Son's Drugstore and began using them. I was surprised at the quick results, as the trouble entirely disappeared and I have had no return of any of the symptoms since. I cannot speak too highly of Doan's Kidney Pills."

Captain David L. Wells and wife of Murphysville Monday were somewhat surprised by the arrival at their home of a beautiful carrier pigeon. The bird is a very handsome one and had no message attached to it, only the number "34" on a metal band around its leg. It is thought the aerial messenger was wafted to the Wells home by the recent storm. The bird will be restored to the owner if the latter can be located.
